EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

FOX HUNTERS' MEETING AT GAY CRAB ORCHARD.

National Association Is Holding
20th Annual Session—A Big Crowd and a Big Time.

Crab Orchard, Ky., Nov. 16.

The Fox Hunters are having great sport here this week. The twentieth annual session of the National Fox Hunters' Association is in session here with 200 dogs, lots of fine horses, while the men and women are enjoying the Springs Hotel to the limit. But "Pa" and "Ma" Willis are proving themselves amply able to take care of all who come, and everyone is loud in praise of the treatment they are receiving. The Fox Hunters are all delighted that Crab Orchard Springs has been made the permanent headquarters for the annual meet.

In addition to the sport of hunting foxes there is a great deal of society here, and dances, card games and other functions occupy much of the town of the gay young crowd that is in attendance. This is certainly one of the most successful meets ever held.

So far the tangible results of the chase have been small. There has been little trouble in starting elusive Reynard from his hiding places but the young dogs have been vastly more inclined to go a rabbit hunting than they have to attend strictly to business. The result has been that the Derby this year has dragged along over three or four days and some hard hunting will have to be done on Friday to finish it. At ten o'clock Thursday was directed to the all-aged stake, which was run with a large field of entries. There are some splendid old dogs on hand, well trained for their work and this event promises really to be the feature of the meeting, notwithstanding the interest which the hunters usually attach to the showing of their puppies made in the Derby.

The Derby was started early Monday morning with 39 entries. The chase lay out toward the large farm of Representative Will H. Shank. After a short hunt a handsome fox was started, but he was a wily old fellow, and took to his hole after a couple of hours' playing with the pups. The Derby candidates strung out all over the country in their initial hunt, but only six were eliminated on this first trial, and 33 started when the bugle sounded on Tuesday morning for the second heat of the big race.

It took a short time to start up another fine animal on this occasion and after a quick chase, he was holed. Men set to work and soon had him dug out, and he was captured and put in a sack and taken back to the springs for the ladies to see. Just before reaching there, however, and in front of the whole assemblage, the fox, which was a beautiful and powerful old dog fox, managed to slip out of the sack in which he was being carried by Hayden Leavelle, and struck out up the street through Crab Orchard with all the packs in full pursuit. Reynard quickly took to the "tail and snout" and soon his trail led toward the hill country.

A short distance from town, his trail crossed that of another fox, which had been recommissioned with in the dancer zone, and the pack of young puppies divided somewhat. One fox was finally holed after a very exciting chase, but it was so late that he was not molested further. The other which had led off a number of pups, managed to make a clean getaway.

Excitement had been keen among the hunters as a result of the second day's work, and everyone was feeling fine when they returned to the Springs for the evening.

The first dinner of the meet was held Tuesday night, and belles and beaux from all the surrounding counties came many miles to participate. Gen. Roger Williams, Col. Jack Chiles, Sam Woodruff, Woods Walker and all the old time fox hunters proved themselves as versatile in training the light fantastic and making the fair ones enjoy themselves as they are in handling the reins over a sure footed thoroughbred or unleashing a pack of having beauties in pursuit of Reynard.

Everyone looked for some fine work from the field of 14 dogs that went to the post in the third heat of the Derby on Wednesday. The opening of the game season, proved their undoing, however. Hunters were affixed with dog and gun, and rabbit were everywhere. The sight of the cotton tails running wild proved too much for the untired pups, however, and they easily forgot the fox trail for game. The dogs were finally called in after a short run Wednesday morning and the huntmen devoted the remainder of the day to the bench show in town, deciding not to resume the Derby trials again until Friday. The all-aged stake was sandwiched in for Thursday for it was not believed that the older and more experienced dogs will allow the fascination for rabbits to swerve them from the straight course of duty.

Some splendid animals were on exhibition at the bench and the very handsome silver loving cups offered by the Association as trophies were eagerly contested for. Sam Woodruff, of Versailles, one of the most expert men on hounds in the country, was chosen as judge and his decisions gave satisfaction to everybody. The ladies all came from the Springs to see the show, while a big crowd was present from town.

In the all-aged class General Roger Williams, who has a splendid pack, took first prize on his dog, with Steve Walker, of Point Lick, came second. Will Turner, of Wynona, Miss., easily led with a handsome bitch and Walker again drew the red.

In the Derby class Woodford county got the monies, Tom Howard taking first and Frank Smedley second.

Steve Walker was awarded the blue ribbons for the best pair shown, any age and the best pack, or two pair.

So far, there has been but one accident of much consequence at the meet. It was sustained by Mrs. Sam Woodruff, of Versailles, who was thrown backward off her horse, soon after starting out Tuesday morning. Mrs. Woodruff was riding a very fine mettlesome hunter, which took offense at the proximity of another horse as they galloped over the straight away. He lunged at the other animal and unsaddled Mrs. Woodruff, who slipped off backward but was not seriously hurt, though badly shaken up. The horse, a noble brute, that he was, stopped instantly, and saved Mrs. Woodruff from being dragged and probably much more seriously injured.

MIDDLEBURG.

Sam Jones has opened a barber shop at Yosemite.

Farmers hereabout are having a hog killing time, since the cold snap began.

Sunday was all sorts of a day. It rained, hailed, sleeted, snowed and cleared up and made it generally disagreeable to those who attempted outdoor exercise.

Thieves entered William Wheat's store here on the night of the election and took a lot of pocket knives to their own use. No clue as yet.

The windstorm played havoc with things here Sunday morning, fences were blown down and shocked fender was picked up and scattered to the four winds.

It seems that if Rev. Ed. Hubbard had been running for snuff he wouldn't have gotten a dip. The paragon to have stuck to his job. Some of the republicans hereabout have spent a considerable time since the election in trying to find an excuse for their defeat of the republican ticket. Some attribute it to one thing and some to another and none of them seems to have hit the mark. It means to us to have been a Republican case in modern style. Wilson's administration, and Cabel Powers were too much for the people of Kentucky. Decent republicans had become disgusted and wanted a change to say nothing of Democrats. Wilson and his gang had feasted and drawn from the treasury to pay the fiddler until the finger appeared on the wall and wrote that the republican party had been weighed in a balance and found wanting. May we ever be delivered from seeing another such set in the capital of Kentucky.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES

Gov. Mann, of Virginia, has refused to interfere so Henry Clay Patton, the young wife murderer will be electrocuted on November 24.

Gov. Hawley, of Idaho, severely criticized President Taft's action in pardoning C. W. Bonnett, a convict bank clerk of that state.

The Government comparative report on tobacco shows that Kentucky produced 270,135,000 pounds in 1911, against 381,024,000 in 1910.

The recently-elected Democrats and those who managed their campaign held a banquet and love feast in Louisville.

One of the bloodiest battles of the present Chinese revolution is momentarily expected to take place at Nankin.

GOOD COLORED TOBACCO SCARCE THIS YEAR.

W. P. Kincaid Begins Buying Here
And Highest Price Paid So
Far Is 11 1-2 Cents.

W. P. Kincaid, the local tobacco man, began buying tobacco this week and has already begun receiving it at his large warehouse on the railroad. He bought 6,000 pounds of James N. Cash this week at 8c. He got eight thousand pounds from Withers and Sears at nine cents. From John Spears, of near Hustonville, he got four thousand pounds at 10 cents. From W. W. White and Tom Eads he got six thousand pounds at 11 1-2 cents. This was a high class crop of the weed.

Good colored tobacco is very scarce in the country, Mr. Kincaid says, and those farmers who have it are getting the best prices.

WAS NOT A PRIEST.

Say Catholic Authorities of one W. L. Delaney, Who Spoke Here

A number of Lincoln county people have received copies of the magazine "Truth" in which reference is made to one Delaney, who has been visiting various places, styling himself an ex-priest of the Catholic church. Delaney visited Lincoln county a short time ago and pretended to make some revelations of the Catholic Catechism. "The local Catholics are desirous that the true facts regarding Delaney be set forth, and the Truth publishes this from the Catholic Catechism. "The last remnant of the foul breed of so-called ex-priests who have in time past made commerce of their association by appealing to dense ignorance and bigotry, has just turned up in an interior Kentucky town. Since he was dismissed from the pastorate of the Baptist church at Martinsville, Ind., and denounced as a thief, a liar and swindler, he found it advisable to change the initials of his name from W. J. to W. L., and still parade as an ex-priest though he was never so much as a seminarian.

At one time he attempted to enter the Lutheran ministry but was dropped on account of immoral letters he sent to the minister's son. Serious charges were filed against him by the Baptist church at Martinsville, Ind., when he was dismissed there.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Genuine Merit Required to Win The People's Confidence.

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—no article did not fulfil the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as by an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists—50c and $1.

A Wrong Choice.

There is no act, nor option of act, possible, but the wrong deed or option has poison in it which will stay in your veins thereafter forever. Never more to all eternity can you be as you might have been had you not done that—chosen that you have "formed your character," "smoothed" No! If you have chosen ill, you have deformed it, and that forever!—Ruskin

KNOWS WHERE TO COME FOR THEM.

SHELBY FOR HELM.

And Democrats Are Out And Out For A Primary.

(Shelby News)

The Interior Journal is badly off predicting Judge Ralph Gilbert as a probable entry in the race for the Democratic nomination for Congress next year. Judge Gilbert is serving his first term as County Judge and will stick to the office to which he was elected. He will be a candidate for a second term, but under no circumstances would he consider entering the race for Congress at this time.

People in this end of the district favor a primary and a big following in Shelby county favor returning Mr. Helm for another term. He has already succeeded in getting a $10,000 appropriation for site for a government building for this county, and they feel that he should be given an opportunity to complete the work he has begun so well and secure the appropriation for the building.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

To Mrs. Center, of Danville, Sister of Two Local Ladies.

Mrs. M. S. Baughman and Mrs. J. A. Baughman were called to Danville early this week to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. W. S. Center who died suddenly where she had gone to undergo a slight surgical operation. The Danville Messenger says of her death:

"She had gone to Lexington only a few days before, and few knew of her absence, in fact, only her nearest relatives knew that she went to undergo a slight surgical operation at a hospital in that city. While not in perfect health, Mrs. Center had been, apparently, very much improved during the past few weeks.

Words fail to express the deep grief felt by the people of Danville upon learning of the sudden taking away of this most estimable and lovable woman. She was a great favorite of all who knew her. She had the happy gift of making friends and her sunny disposition and many acts of kindness will be greatly missed. Before marriage she was Miss Florence Jenkins, and came from one of the oldest and most prominent families residing in Boyle and Garrard counties. The death of Mrs. Center removes from society a most lovable woman, a great-hearted, high-minded gentleman. Her loss to her husband, little daughter, and mother is irreparable.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the residence, Fourth and Broadway, at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Eld. H. C. Garrison, of the Christian church, at which organization Mrs. Center was an active faithful and exemplary member.

GOOD WATER AT LANCASTER.

The vote on the bond issue for improving the Lancaster water works resulted favorably, and the second says an expert will at once be employed and active steps taken toward getting the supply from the river. Many persons not acquainted with the facts are inclined to grieve our neighbors for not going to the river at first, but this was impossible, and the necessary money could not be raised by the limit allowed by law. The present plant is half way to the river, and as much of the original debt has been paid off, the remainder of the distance can be covered with this sum now voted. The pipes and entire plant are the best to be had, and when the supply comes from the river, there will be few towns of its size that will have better water than Lancaster.

Children Believe.

Yes children believe plenty of queer things. I suppose all of you have had the pocketbook fever when you were little. What do I mean? Why, ripping up old pocketbooks in the firm belief that bank bills to an immense amount were hidden in them. So, too, you must all remember some splendid unfulfilled promise of somebody or other, which fed you with hopes for hours, for years, and which left a blank in your life which nothing has ever filled up.—Holmes

MRS. J. J. ELLIOTT DEAD

Mrs. J. J. Elliott, wife of one of the most prominent farmers of the McKinney section farmers, of the here Wednesday after a lengthy illness. She is survived by her husband and several children, and leaves a host of friends to mourn that she is no more. The funeral services were conducted by J. C. McClary at McKinney Thursday afternoon at four o'clock and a large number of friends and loved ones followed the remains of the good woman to their last resting place.

HOT FIGHT OVER

COMMISSIONERSHIP

Judge Hardin Puts Decision Between Two Candidates Up To County Committee.

Much interest has been manifested this week over the appointment of a Master Commissioner of the Lincoln County Circuit Court which will be made by Judge-elect C. A. Hardin, as soon as he is inducted to office. At the beginning there were five active applicants for the place, but it has generally been conceded that the race lay between Rowan Saufley and H. J. McRoberts. So keen did the contest between these two become this week, that Judge Hardin suggested that he would leave the matter to the Democratic County Committee of Lincoln to decide between them, and would appoint whoever the Committee might endorse.

This decision on the part of the Judge, put the friends of both applicants to hustling, and some talk electioneering with the Committee-men is said to have been the result. The suggestion has been made by those on the outside, that a fair way to settle would be to have a primary election held to decide between the candidates for the place so that every democrat in the county might register his choice in the matter, and not only the members of the county committee. It is understood that friends of the candidates have said that they would be willing to have a county primary to settle between them.

The members of the County Committee to whom the matter has been put up, are:

S. J. Embury, Jr., T. A. Rice, J. R. Bailey, J. M. Carter, Dr. C. M. Thompson, Dr. A. K. Caldwell, W. S. Drive, Walter Martin, John Cress, Louis Bell, Wm. North, W. J. Holtzclaw, G. L. Penny is chairman of the committee, but only votes, in event of a tie.

Contest In Garrard Too.

Reports from Garrard county are to the effect that a bitter fight has arisen over the Master Commissionership for that county also. So far those who are candidates for the place are said to be "Bog" Brown, Fleece Robinson G. B. Swinebroad, J. R. Mount, Attorney Kaufman and a dark horse or two.

There is said to also be a contest on in Boyle county over the appointment.

The Master Commissionership of a county pays in fees about $600 a year.

SPLENDID YOUNG MAN

Succumbs to Ravages of Typhoid After Long Illness.

Edward White, one of the best known and most respected young men of the East End, died at his home on Cedar Creek, near Crab Orchard at six o'clock Wednesday morning after an illness of typhoid fever of about a month's duration. Mr. White was just 25 years of age and his death comes as a severe blow to his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth White, and his many friends and loved ones. He was a son of the late Rev. W. T. B. White, and besides his mother is survived by his brother Joe H. White, of Dallas, Tex., who came to be with his mother in her hour of tribulation, Will White a merchant of Ottumwa, and sisters, Mrs. Will Lawrence, Mrs. W. R. Pleasant, and Mrs. James Livingston.

Funeral services will be conducted at the late residence today, Friday, by his pastor, Rev. J. G. Livingston and also at the grave, interment being in the Preachersville cemetery.

Frenchman's Family a Large One.

A farmer of St. Ursues, in Saone-et-Loire, France, has just had his thirtieth child baptized. The old gentleman, whose name is Bossut, has been married three times and has had 17 sons and 13 daughters. Twenty-two of his children are still living.

Ancient Needle Factory?

The discovery of a prehistoric needle factory at a prehistoric lake village near Glastonbury, England, roused much interest recently. The dwellings were placed on mounds of clay raised above the level of the water. The framework of a primitive loom was found under one mound, and the number of broken bone needles and bone splinters discovered in another mound led the explorers to think that it may have been the site of an ancient needle factory.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

JUDGE SAUFLEY'S PORTRAIT

Received From Artist And Will Hang in Court Room.

The large oil portrait of the late Judge M. C. Saufley, which is to hang in the Circuit Court room together with other Judges and distinguished men who presided over Lincoln's court in bygone years, has arrived and has been on exhibition at Penny's drug store for the past few days. All who have seen it pronounce it splendid likeness of the Judge. It was painted by McCreary and Branson of Knoxville, and is a magnificent work of art.

DEPOT WORK DELAYED

On Account of Failure of Roofing To Arrive on Time

Work on Stanford's new depot has been at a standstill for the past few days, owing to the fact that the roofing ordered, has not yet arrived. The constructing crew, meanwhile, has been switched to Elizabethtown to do some repair work. There is much regret that work had to be discontinued just when the structure was almost ready for completion. Everything was ready for the roofing and weatherboarding, but nothing could be done until the roofing came.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Will Be Reno's Performance. So You'd Better See Him

Everybody seems to be talking about the performance that Reno, the Magician will give at the opera house on Friday night, November 24. He comes as the third number on the course of the Stanford Lyceum Club. Positive assurance is given by the members of the club, who stand unusually high in the community, with possibly one exception, that the Magician will be allowed to tamper with no one's belongings, who does not give personal consent.

This wonder worker has been known to do such things as tearing up a person's hat and transforming the fragments into a full sized rabbit; or taking a man's watch, hammering it into pieces and then finding the watch safely put together again in the mouth of a fish. These are but a few of the unusual and wholly extraordinary feats that he performs, and the indications are that he will be greeted by a crowded house. The prices for the evening have been fixed at the very low sum of 25, 35 and 50 cents and if you don't see him you will wish afterwards that you had for he'll be the talk of the town for many days afterward. Seats on sale at Penny's Drug Store.

HENRY TRAYLOR'S WILL

FILED FOR PROBATE

Large Estate of Prominent Distiller Is Bequeathed To His Immediate Relatives.

The will of the late W. H. Traylor was filed in the County Court on Monday, and duly ordered to probate. Mr. Traylor's estate, is estimated to be worth anywhere from $30,000 to $75,000 owing to the figure that his large distillery interests will command when they are put up for sale, which is directed by the will.

J. B. Paxton is appointed executor of the will, and is directed to sell the estate and convert same into cash.

Practically all of Mr. Traylor's bequests are to his close relatives. To his nephew, Charley Zanone he leaves $2,000.

To Mrs. Anna West he leaves one-sixth of the balance of his estate after the payment of all his debts etc.

To Dan Traylor he leaves the sum of $100, and to the other children of his brother Alex Traylor, he leaves one-sixth of his estate, less the sum of $100, same to be divided among them.

To the children of his brother, John Traylor, he left one-sixth of his estate to be equally divided among them with W. M. Bright as guardian for the minor children.

To his estate, Mrs. Nancy A. Logan, he leaves one-sixth of his estate except the sum of $1,000 which is to go to her death to William Cornelius Traylor, son of Emmett Traylor.

To the children of his deceased sister, Mrs. Mary he leaves one sixth of his estate to be equally divided among them.

FROM AN OLD SOLDIER

Hustonsville, Ky., R. D. No. 2 Nov 14

A word to all old soldiers, as I was one during the civil war. And my sympathy reaches out to all that fought for what they thought right. For 15 years my life has been a burden to me. I had rheumatism in my lower limbs, shoulders and back so bad I couldn't have an hour's peace, night or day. Had almost lost use of myself. I used all kinds of medicines I could hear of, that was recommended for rheumatism. And doctors often told me the more you treat rheumatism the worse it gets. I had almost lost all hopes of ever getting relief until I had taken a 45 days' treatment of Pursey's Indian Herbs. Now I feel that I am entirely cured. I don't have a pain I can walk five miles without any exertion. I really feel like a new man. This is a godsend to all sufferers of Rheumatism. Try it and be convinced. This statement is made without solicitation voluntarily by me for the benefit of suffering humanity. (signed) W. S. TAYLOR.

Accomplished in Profanity.

This from Hawaii: "A native woman called on the attorney general the other day to complain of the bad language used by the child of a neighbor in the presence of her own tota. 'How old is your neighbor's child?' queried the attorney general. 'About six,' replied the woman. 'I shouldn't think that a child of that age could use much bad language,' remarked the attorney general. 'You ought to hear him,' exclaimed the woman. 'Why, he can swear just as good as his father.'"

A Cure for Snoring.

Here is a simple cure for snoring, on which a correspondent has lived as a happy married man for 38 years. "Put a clove in your mouth." That's all. It will keep your mouth closed and will be there still in the morning, having compelled you to breathe through your nose all night.
